ETHICAL TRENDS OF MODERN INDIAN THOUGHTS: AN EXPLORATION

(Blended Mode)

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Bankura Zilla Saradamani Mahila Mahavidyapith, established in 1973, is the oldest Women's college in Bankura district. Initially affiliated with the University of Burdwan and now with Bankura University (since 2017), the college is named after Holy Mother Sri Sri Sarada Devi. It offers undergraduate Honours programmes in 14 subjects and postgraduate courses in English, Bengali, History, Music, and Geography. With modern infrastructure, including a digital library, hostel, auditorium, seminar hall, and gymnasium, the college provides a peaceful, student-friendly learning environment.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

India possesses a profound ethical heritage that dates back to the Vedic–Upanishadic era. Modern Indian philosophy differs significantly from the classical Indian tradition in several respects. While remaining responsive to scientific and technological advancements, modern Indian thinkers developed a more analytical approach to philosophical inquiry. Nevertheless, the spiritual legacy inherited from the Indian tradition continues to shape the moral outlook of modern Indian philosophy. This academic programme seeks to explore the ethical trends in modern Indian thoughts by highlighting the moral philosophies of prominent modern thinkers like Ishwar Chandra Bandopadhyay, Sri Sri Ramakrishna, Rabindranath Tagore, Mahatma Gandhi, Swami Vivekananda, Sri Aurobindo, Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, Ramendra Sundar Trivedi and others.
